

The Office of the National Coordinator for Health Information Technology

ONC Update

July 9, 2012

Jodi G. Daniel, JD, MPH

Director, Office of Policy and Planning

-
- Goal:
 - 100,000 health care providers become meaningful users by the end of 2012

- Achieved:
 - 110,000 health care providers became meaningful users by June 2012

20% of all eligible professionals in the US

- Providers working with RECs
 - 133,000 Primary Care Providers
 - 10,000 Specialists
 - > 70% of small practice providers in rural areas

- Meeting at HHS
 - Meetings to discuss work in achieving meaningful use of EHRs
 - Diverse stakeholders from 34 states based on input from grantees
 - Discussed:
 - Best practices to achieve MU
 - HIT adoption in medically underserved communities
 - Leveraging HIT for quality improvement
 - Safe and secure exchange of health information
- White House Meeting
 - Discuss how HIT was being implemented across the country
 - Success stories and areas for improvement

- 1477 “Unique” Certified EHR Products

	Ambulatory	Inpatient	Total
Complete EHR	613	87	700
Modular EHR	399	378	777
Total	1012	465	1477

- 816 EHR Vendors/Developers

This table shows a unique count of products. Any additional versions of the same products are not included.

-
- The CHPL is new and improved to support :
 - “Hybrid” Certification
 - Navigation and search improvements:
 - Improved return to search functionality
 - Improved cart functionality
 - Improved product record display
 - Improved product record search

-
- Standards/Certification Rules → In Process
 - Governance → Reviewing Comments

Non-Eligible Providers

-
- LTPAC
 - Roundtable
 - State challenge efforts
 - S&I
 - Behavioral Health
 - Roundtable in July
 - Quality measures

- Health eDecisions Initiative
 - S&I effort
 - Take clinical practice guidelines and put them in common formats that can be shared and consumed by EHRs