- Bold and Venturesome
- Accomplish together what no single organization might consider alone

What our Team did ...

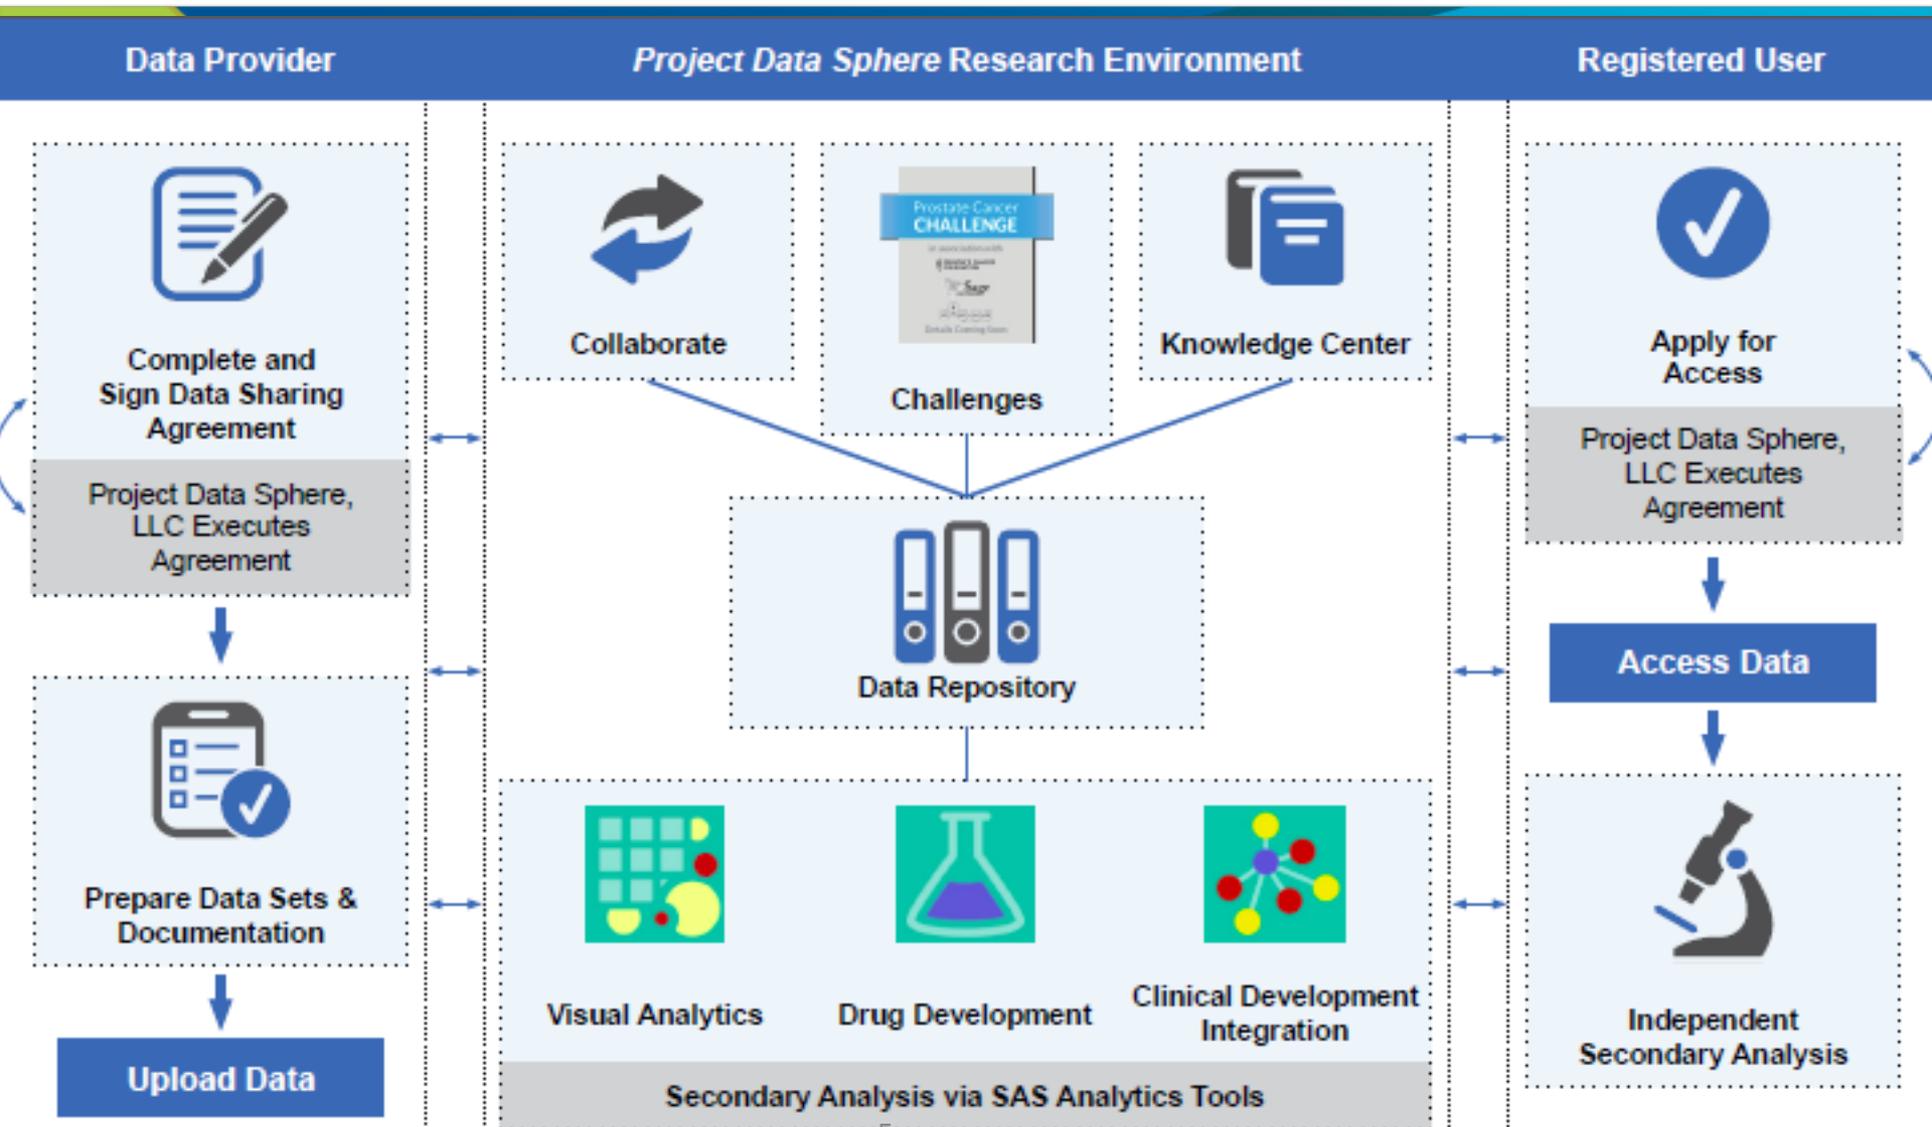

....spent 3 years addressing historical barriers to data sharing:

The Project Data Sphere[®] initiative

- Independent, voluntary, not-for-profit initiative
- One place to broadly share, integrate, & analyze cancer trial data
 - from academic and industry Phase III clinical trials
 - historical, comparator arm data
 - raw anonymized patient level data, data dictionary, protocols and CRFs
- State of the art analytic tools provided by SAS
- Community tools
- www.ProjectDataSphere.org

People, Process and Technology

How Can Organizations Get Involved?

The true power of Project Data Sphere® initiative will come from an ever-increasing volume of data and the engagement of a diverse global community focused on finding solutions for cancer patients.

Share Data

- Work with your oncology team to identify and prepare data for sharing

Use the Platform

- Encourage your team to become users of the Project Data Sphere platform to develop new innovations that can advance cancer research
