PERCENT OF PHYSICIANS AGREEING THAT THE EHR HAS THE FOLLOWING IMPACTS:

EHR does not meet MU criteria
- Produces Clinical Benefits for my Practice: 79%
- My Practice Functions More Efficiently: 75%
- Produces Financial Benefits for my practice: 55%

EHR meets MU criteria
- Produces Clinical Benefits for my Practice: 88%
- My Practice Functions More Efficiently: 79%
- Produces Financial Benefits for my practice: 67%

EHR meets MU criteria with 2+ years of EHR experience
- Produces Clinical Benefits for my Practice: 92%
- My Practice Functions More Efficiently: 85%
- Produces Financial Benefits for my practice: 72%

SYSTEMS DEMONSTRATING MEANINGFUL USE

- They have a system that meets CMS meaningful use criteria: about 76%
- Uncertain whether their system meets the CMS meaningful use criteria: about 15%
- They have a system that does not meet the CMS meaningful use criteria: 8%

Note: CMS—the Centers for Medicaid & Medicare Services
EHR—Electronic Health Record

Data represent office-based physicians who reported having adopted EHR systems.