

Innovative Health IT teaching materials available at no cost to instructors nationwide

Resources for educators to develop Health IT training courses

The Teaching Materials Feature:

- Slide-based lectures with audio narration and transcripts, instructor manuals, learning activities, and self-assessment questions with answer keys
- Hands-on computer lab-based experience using VistA for Education electronic health record (EHR) software
- Support for distance learning
- Currently used in 51 countries on 6 continents

Focused on the Health IT worker roles of:

- Clinician/Practitioner Consultant
- Implementation Manager
- Implementation Support Specialist
- Practice Workflow & Information Management Redesign Specialist
- Technical/Software Support Staff
- Trainer

The 20 topics covered include:

- Workflow process redesign
- EHR installation and technical support
- Networking and system usability
- Project management
- Quality improvement
- ...and many others

For more information about:

Curriculum Development Centers program, visit <http://healthit.hhs.gov/curriculumdevelopment>

Obtaining the materials, visit <http://www.onc-ntdc.org>
OR
<http://www.onc-ntdc.info>